
Costa Navarino's Anazoe Spa wins three awards at The SPA Traveller Awards 2015

Monday 12 November 2015, London – Anazoe Spa at Costa Navarino, the prime sustainable destination located in the Greek region of Messinia, southwest Peloponnese, has been awarded the top accolade in three categories at this year's SPA Traveller Awards, as Best European Spa to Recharge, Best Wellness Spa: Europe and Best for Golf and Spa Europe. The win for a third year running, acknowledges Anazoe Spa as a leading global authority on spa practices and treatments.

The SPA Traveller Awards recognise the ultimate spa and wellness destinations around the world, as voted for by international readers of The SPA Traveller magazine. The awards are regarded as a benchmark to showcase excellence and achievement in the spa industry.

Already in the top spot for the third year, Anazoe Spa had a double win in last year's awards within the categories of Best International Family-Friendly Spa Hotel/Resort and Best International New/Refurbished Spa. Anazoe Spa also won two categories in the 2013 awards.

The Director of Anazoe Spa, Dora Koromila, said about the awards: "We are extremely proud and honoured to win a record of three Spa Traveller awards this year and to be recognised internationally as one of the best spas in the world. We are continuously striving to offer our clients with an outstanding service, unique wellness experiences and our signature treatments that are truly authentic'

The Anazoe Spa was recognised for its offering of a full range of specialist treatments based on ancient Greek health and beauty practices. The name Anazoe derives from the Greek word for rejuvenation and encapsulates the underlying aim of the spa, which is a total revitalisation of body and spirit in accordance with the ancient Greek maxim "a healthy mind in a healthy body". The spa's unique oleotherapy® signature treatments are based on thousand-year-old local practices inscribed on clay tablets that were discovered at the nearby Palace of Nestor, combined with using the area's exclusive natural ingredients and the physiotherapy techniques as taught by Hippocrates, the 'father' of western medicine.

For a deeply indulgent break, Costa Navarino offers guests a rejuvenating experience and return home feeling invigorated and renewed, having enjoyed an authentic experience during their stay at The Westin Resort Costa Navarino or The Romanos, a Luxury Collection Resort.
